The Brass Monkey

By Steve Henderson

Dinner Theater Comedy Mystery from BrickRoad
Productions

THE BRASS MONKEY tavern is a well known haunt of pirates, thieves, corrupt officials and other nefarious miscreants. “The Jolly Flying Dutchman Roger” (or just “The Roger”) has recently sailed unexpectedly into port because her Captain Baha died suddenly from an illness.....or was it? In any case, it seems to suit the purposes of four pirates from the crew of The Roger. They have joined this evening’s revelry to find the other half of a treasure map. The First Mate, the Cook, the Cabin Boy and Abel, able seaman all seem to have their own agenda. Not that they know what an agenda is. Help figure out what really happened to Captain Baha, find that treasure, and most assuredly join the FUN at The Brass Monkey.
