Murder at the Priory

Written by Steve Henderson

Dinner Theater Mystery Comedy From BrickRoad Productions

Welcome to the time of kings and queens, lords and jesters, wizards and knights (none of whom you'll see here)! However meet Brothers Ambiguous, Libidonous, Inebrius, and Ignoramous: 4 wacky friars delighted to have your company... and your help. A very special event will be happening at the Priory and the Friars want the celebration to be appropriate for this most important occasion. This promises to be the Priory event of the 15th century: if nothing goes wrong... what could possibly go wrong?
